STERLING'S GAS REGULATOR .-- We have had one of these machines in operation in our office for the past week, and last night it was submitted to a trict test, to show its gas saving qualities: First, 25 feet of gas were burned through the regulator, and the time taken, which was 15 mirutes, being at the rate of 100 feet perhour. Then a weight was placed upon the regulator, which gives the burners the same pressure as they would receive were the regulator not attached, and 25 feet of gas were burned in 12 minutes—carell one of the parties who had the difficulty with her brother. To this, the witness replied that she must be mistaken, as Seay was not engaged in the difficulty at all, that Watchman Sale was one of the parties. This convergation was held regulator, and the time taken, which was 15 mirfeet of gas were burned in 12 minutes-equal to 125 feet per hour-showing a saving of gas of 25 per cent. In private dwellings or stores, where it is not necessary to have so large a light, we understand that even a greater saving is accomplished. Then, too, the light itself is much improved. There is no flickering or blowing at the burners. The machine regulates the pressure at the meter. and it is always uniform at the burners, whether one burner or 100 are in use at the same time. The secret of the saving effected in the consumption of gas through the regulator seems to be that the machine is guaged to allow gas to pass through perfect combustion. There is no waste of gas, oc-easioning a blue flame and blowing, and the press-

it at precisely that pressure, which will ensure its ure is sufficient, also, to prevent the burner from Fourth streets, and if any of our citizens wish to examine into the merits of the machine, if they will leave their names at the above named place, the agents will call upon them and show its practical working.

WATCHMAN SALE HELD TO BAIL .- By referring to the Police report, it will be seen that watchmar Charles Sale has been held to $1,500 bail to answer a felony, in attempting the life of Wm. Gilmore. For the defense it was urged that Gilmorehad threatened to take the life of Sale "on sight." They met; Gilmore saw Sale, and actually ran across the street to avoid him, which confutes the murderous plea set up, that Gilmore threatened to kill the man "on sight."

Judge Johnston in summing up the case, remarked that he was not surprised to hear the assertion, so often made, that parties did not want their cases prosecuted, as the law in this city is imper ative. He, however, said he was determined to have the law respected, and in this case saw nothing whatever to excuse Watchman Sale. There was o testimony that the accused was implicated, and t was not known that he was ever accused of firing at Alex. Gilmore; that it would have been an easy matter for him to have had an investigation of the rumor that he was threatened. He, a peace officer, had grossly violated the penal laws in attempting the life of a man, who had made no demonstration against him, but had actually got out of his way by running.

EXAMINATION OF CHAS. SALE FOR SHOOTING AND WOUNDING WM. GILMORE.—Charles Sale, a watchman was presented on the charge of shooting

WOUNDING WM. GILMORE.—Charles Sale, a watchman, was presented on the charge of shooting Wm. Gilmore on the street, Tuesday afternoon.—
The charge was admitted without calling for proof, and witnesses called for the defense. The first brought to the stand was J. B. Bayne, another watchman, who testified that he was at the house of Alex. Gilmore the night previous, in the room of young Alex. Gilmore who was wounded.
At a late hour of the night, Wm. Gilmore came into the room very much excited, and kneeling into the room very much excited, and kneeling down by the bedside of his wounded brother, swore to kill the man who had shot his brother, if he had to follow him to the end of the earth. one of the parties. This conversation was held after Wm. Gilmore had left the room. The witness further testified that Wm. Gilmore did not threaten any one in particular, and did not at any time call the name of Sale, the accused.

John Lamborn was called and sworn.—He testified that he was in the house of Gilmore when William came home. The latter was highly ex-cited, and commenced crying over his wounded brother, and then swore to kill the man on sight brother, and then swore to kill the man on signs who had shot him. His father, mother, and sisters surrounded him, and took him from the room. The witness remained in the room two hours or more after this occurrence, and did not hear the name of Sale, the accused, called at any time. When Wm. Gilmore came into the room he was a much excited that he actually hurst the door

James Walker was next called, and testified to being present when Sale shot Wm. Gilmore. He was with Sale on the south side of Jefferson street, smoking.

The agents for this useful machine have their headquarters at T. Williams & Co.'s, gas fitters, on the north side of Market, between Third and Fourth streets, and if any of our citizens wish to gun from under his coat, calling witness to fol-low him. Wm. Gilmore then started across the street to get out of the way, when Sale, with his gun, came out, and running up the street opposite gun, came out, and running up the street opposite to Gilmore, who was retreating, took aim, and fired. The witness saw no demonstration whatever on the part of either Gilmore or Red on meeting Sale, and when the latter fired the former was retreating, and held his hand up, and had his face partially turned.—Sale had a double-barrelled gun.

The defence here closed, and for the prosecution Dr. Mat. Pyles and Alex. Gilmore, Sr., were introduced to state the condition of Wm. Gilmore, Dr. Pyles stated that the wounded man had been so much excited that he actually burst the door

Dr. Piles stated that the wounded man had been shot in the right corner of the mouth, evidently a buckshot, which had knocked out three of his teeth, and cut his tongue; another shot took effect in the left leg, just above the knee joint. The wound in the mouth had very much swollen the tongue of the wounded man, and mortification may ensue and cause death.

Alex. Gilmore, Sr., was next introduced and testified that the name of Sale was never called or used in the house, that all his family knew Sale intimately, that he had been frequently in the house, and no threat was made against him The witness further stated that he had no desire whatever to prosecute Sale. The case was then submitted to the Court, and Sale was held to bail in the sum of $1,500 to answer a charge of felony. Harrison Sale and Wm. Stewart went his bail. THE MURDER OF PENDER AND THE WOUNDING OF WATCHMAN TILLER, &c.—This case was called up again in rather a desultory way, the City Attorney appearing to consider the wounding of Tiller the only case in point, the murder of Pender a matter of no consideration. In this connection Jas. Macdonald is presented as a party implicated, and the Commonwealth declared itself not ready wanting Hercules Walker for a witness. The watchman, Tiller, was also wanted as a witness against John McGill, who is also under arrest for

to with the understanding, or admission that Mac-donald fired at Walker while the latter was firing

Gilmore asked witness to take a drink, which he refused, and then Gilmore cursed the watch as a thieving set, and retracted the next moment, saying he asked his pardon, but that Tiller was a two-faced son of a b——ch. This witness further stated that Pender and Macdonald were in company of Gilmore, and while his head, the witness', was turned, he saw Til nd shoot at Tiller. The latter also had a and shoot at Tiller. The latter also had a pistol out. The accused, Macdonald took hold of Gilmore to keep him away, and the witness then called on Eatcliffe to help quell the disturbance. He then turned round, and seeing Hercules Walker close by, and taking him for a friend, beckoned him to come up, and he came with a double barreled gun, ready for the fray. As he advanced the witness called on Pender to help him, and as Walker advanced Pender pointed a pistol at Walker, and the latter shot Pender.—The accused, Macdonald, then drew a revolver and fired several times, evidently at Walker.

Dr. Gillin was granting and saw the fray Dr. Gilpin was examined, and saw the fray across the street, and saw McDonald firing at Walker; saw one shot, and then saw him point his pistol several times. The witness saw Walker tire his gun at Pender, and also saw him shoot at Alex. Gilmore with the gun, and several times with a pistol. He saw Walker take deliberate along at Gilmore with the gun and fire a cheer at aim at Gilmore with the gun and fire, a shot evidently hitting him on the head, as he shook his head and threw it up. Then he and Walker exchanged shots with their pistols. Previous to this Walker came up to the watchmen, Tiller and Sale, and offered the gun to Tiller, who told him to shoot and he shot Pender, who made no demto shoot, and he shot Pender, who made no demonstration, and the witness did not see Pender have any weapon. The witness at the first of the fray ought he saw Tiller raise his cane to strike Gi nore, and the latter knocked him down. Tiller and assumed a threatening attitude, waving Gil something from his pocket. While the shooting was going on the accused was seen at an angle with the others, shooting at Herc. Walker. The prosecution here rested the case.

Mr. J. H. Davis was called for the defense, and stated that he did not see the origin of the fray. He stood at the door of Walker's stable and saw the parties across the street at Turner Hall, and saw McGill with a pistol in his hand, and Tiller stand ing in front of the Turner Hall with his cane ele vated. Then Pender pushed Tiller down, and after he got up Gilmore shot at him. Tiller sunk down with his hands to his abdomen saying, he was shot, he was killed. Walker then came with his gun, and Tiller called to him to sho them men. He advanced and shot Pender, who fell dead. The latter had a pistol in his hand, but did not point it, or attempt to use it. The wit-ness then saw Walker advance to Gilmore and ness then saw Walker advance to Gilmore and Macdonald, who were going up street, and saw Walker fire the gun at Gilmore, taking deliberate aim, knocking the latter's hat off. Then Macdonald fired at Walker.

W. G. Reasor testified that he saw the parties, and stated that it was remarked that Alex. Gilmore was on a spree. He went up to him to endeavor to take his pistol away, but he didn't succeed. Young Watts then attempted to take Carter Tiller away to stop the fuss. Tiller refused, and said he wouldn't go away for any such a son and said he wouldn't go away for any such a son of a b—h as Alex. Gilmore. The latter said he wouldn't take that from any one, and struck Tiller on the chin. The latter stumbled, and after he got up he attempted to draw something, when Gilmorejerked away from the witness, who was endeavoring to take his pistol away, and fired at Tiller, saying, take that. After that Walker came up, and offered the gun to Tiller, who told him to shoot, but still held it towards him, but he refused, and then Walker fired at Pender, who was leaning and then Walker fred at Fender, who was leaning against the house, making no offer of fight what ever. He fell exclaiming, "oh Lord, I am killed!" The witness did not see Macdonald making any demonstration, but stated that he had a single barrelled pistol. The case was here submitted to to the Court without argument, and Macdonald was held to bail in $1,200 to answer a charge of felony. The bail was given.

This ended the Police business of the day, and the monthly docket was again taken up. There was a great mixing of Black and K. N. seasoning in the dining-room of the Commercial Hotel, at Saratoga, one evening last week. The Republicans and Americans met in caucus to nominate candidates for local offices, against the Democracy. The crowd had just got around the table where the officers were, and the Secretary had elevated himself to read the ticket, when the floor timbers beneath gave way, prcipitating the whole meeting, numbering some hundred persons, into the cellar, together with chairs, tables, stove, and nearly all the crockery and glassware of the house which was used on the table. No one was seriously injured, though the tender-shin portion of the party suffered some "barking," and "great cry and some wool" were heard and felt in the cellar for some time. The damage called for nearly all the corruption fund, so that the Opposition must have been short of funds at the election.—Rochester (N. Y.) Union.

Kentucky State Agricultural Socity. [Correspondence of the Louisville Courier.] FRANKFORT, April 7, 1869.

Editors Louisville Courier: The State Board have just adjuorned after a laborious session of twentyfour hours, in the course of which time, more work was accomphished than is often got through with in the same period. The Board is composed of practical men throughout-stock-raisers, cropmakers, fruit-growers-and the zeal with which they work in the good cause of agricultural industry and developement, is equalled only by the wisdom with which they administer the affairs of the Society. The President, Corresponding Sec-retary and Treasurer were all present, and only two of the Directors were absent—(and they, gentlemen who reside in the far-away Green Biver country, and who necessarily have to be in attendance upon the exhibition of tobacco, before committees of the Society in Lousville, on the 24th of next month.

The main business of the meeting of the Board this time was the preparation of a premium.

at this time was the preparation of a premium list for 1859, and the location of the next fair.—
The former duty was accomplished most judiciously. Many premiums were raised in amount, some were dispensed with altogether, and to many, which were left the same in amount as last year, was added a copy of the first volume of Col. excellent agricultural paper, the Ken-

Propositions for the fair were made from Lex ington, Paris, Maysville and Germantown. There was much difficulty in deciding between them, but, after long deliberation and discussion, the terms of the Lexington proposition were regarded as the best, and the fourth annual fair of the Kentucky State Agricultural Society will consequently be held in that city. The pride of the Fayette people is fairly up and with an liberal and comople is fairly up, and, with so liberal and com prehensive a premium list as will soon be published, the finest fair that has ever been held in Kentucky may be anticipated for next autumn, "the heart of Blue Grass."

The time fixed for the fair is the 13th, 14th, 15th Growing crops look well in this region, and the rmers are all in good heart. The fruit hereabout has been "scotched," but not killed. Yours, &c.,

The Remains of the Woman Found in a Scap-box

—The Mystery being Investigated—The Fate of On Wednesday last we announced the discovery of the remains of a female at the office of the Hud of the remains of a female at the office of the Hudson River Railroad in this city in a soap-box, horribly mangled and in a decayed state. The fact of their having been shipped from New York, as extra baggage, and directed to H. Rippe, Franklin, Indiana, has attracted the attention of the special detective force of Matsell & Co., New York, who last evening dispatched Mr. McGrath to this city to investigate the matter. When he left strong suspicions were entertained in New York that the remains were those of Mrs. Brennan, wife of Capt. B., of the United States Army, who, at the time of B., of the United States Army, who, at the time of her disappearance, resided on Staten Island. She has been missing since the 29th of July last, and was last seen upon the Island, and is supposed to have been murdered. It will be recollected that Coroner Dean removed the card from the box, and on the opposite side found printed thereon: "From W. S. Barnes, 118 and 120 Third Avenue, corner of Fourteenth street, New York." The announcement of this on the habit of frequently visiting them. She is upposed to have been waylaid at right, ravished at then murdered in that vicinity. Mrs. B. was f prepossessing appearance, about twenty-six ars of age.

Mr. McGrath brought with the manner of the leading men are about to apostatize and preparing to leave, namely: Heber Kimball's son William, Fenimore Little, Brigham's right hand man, and Claudius Spencer. This is causing considerable excitement.

It is also said that a more considerable and the considerable excitement. mains in question are those of Mrs. Brennan, for she had friends residing near this store, and was in the habit of frequently visiting them. She is

Mr. McGrath brought with him a daguerreotype of Mrs. B., and this morning, in the company of Dr. Armsby and Coroner Dean, examined the contents of the soap-box. They found the remains in a decaying state, and so mutilated that the Doctor ould not give an opinion, although he said that they might be those sought after. Dr. Crane, of New York, brother of the deceased,

Shocking Occurrence.—We have been furnished with the particulars of a most shocking case of infanticide, which transpired on Blue Island Avito hear of a shooting affair or two. enue on Sunday last. As nearly as we could gather the circumstances, we are enabled to lay before our raaders the following:—On Saturday hildren were born the mother was seized with Carlo Beppo, who is employed as night watchman in one of our manufacturing establishments,—and called in friends, who, by a great deal of exertion in the way of administering soporifics and soothing remedies, succeeded in quelling the convulsions, and, as was supposed by those in attendance, getting her into a sleep which would prevail until the advent of her husband, who had been sent for. One only of those called in as as-sistants remained with the young woman to act as nurse, and from the influence of the intense excitement, we suppose, actually allowed them-salves to fall to sleep. What was their horror on being aroused to see the mother sitting up in the bed, tossing and throwing one of the little ones to and fro in a state of wild frenzy. Immediate measures were taken to secure the babe, but the least approach of the two watchers increased her avings fearfully. Before the arrival of aid the isane mother had seized one of the infants with er teeth, mangling and tearing the flesh from its neck and head in such a horrible manner, that, when the little thing was rescued, life had fled. The spasms and convulsions did not seem t hate in the least until the arrival of her husband the was the only one she recognized. We are in-ormed that Mrs. B. is subject to fits, which have seen known to last for two and three days at a time, but never, except in this case, exhibited any such raving symptons.—Chicago Herald, 6th.

A FAMILY POISONED.—A correspondent writing from Lexington, Va., to the Richmond Dispatch, ays: This community has been thrown into a state of extreme excitement by the poisoning of Dr. Jun-kin, President of Washington College, and his enkin, President of Washington College, and his en-tire family, on the night of the 20th of last month. The peison used was arsenic, and was put into cream used at supper, by a negro of the Doctor's, named Billy. All the family including Doctor Junkin, Mrs. Fishburn and her child Miss Fish-burn, George Junkin Jr., and a young student named Anderson, were poisoned, but the dose ad-ministered was so large that it acted as an emetic, thus saving their lives. All the sufferers are now well. Billy has been arrested, examined and sent

The There are some exceptions, of course, but generally the prospects are quite encouraging. The Illinois papers agree that there is a probability of more than a general average in the State. In Michigan the prospects are equally favorable.—
These remarks also apply to Ohio and Western New York. From Texas the accounts are exceedingly flattering. Wheat is in fine condition. Corn is looking well. It is five or six inches high, and has received the first plowing. The season in is looking well. It is live or six in the season in that State is three weeks earlier than usual. The real embarrassments of the President begin on the 1st of July, when payments for the last quarter are due. So far, a liberal spirit has been manifested by contractors. If this is continued, Mr. Holt believes the Department can be carried ent proposals for the mail transportations in the five Southern States, can be made with existing prices for several weeks. At least 12,000 bids Justice Purdy's office yesterday, and made complaint against her husband, a negro, for abus-ing and maltreating her. She said they had been married three years, and that the ceremony was performed by a colored minister, named Monroe, when she was fourteen years old. Monroe is still living in the city, in performance of his reli-gious functions. The negro who claimed right over her as husband, is a long, ill-favored fellow, sive. She has latterly refused to live with him, since which he has beset her at every opportunity and beat her unmercifully. He even followed he down to the Justice's office when she went after the warrant. This was placed in the hands of an officer for his arrest.

Such marriages are common in this city, aithough the persons performing them know that they are illegal, and that they are amenable to the law for so doing. The temptation to degrade the white race to their own level is too great for even a minister of the Gospel to resist.

ANOTHER FUGITIVE-SUCCESSFUL ESCAPE .- The city of Newport had a distinguished arrival on Saturday last in the person of a man slave, be-longing to a gentleman by the name of Martin, relonging to a gentleman by the name of Martin, residing in or near Cynthians. A BULLET FIRED INTO A PASSENGER CAR—LADIES INJURED.—As the Millerton train on the Harlem Railroad was passing the depot at Hart's Corners, on its way to the city, a bullet, supposed to have been fired from a pistol, passed through the window-sash on the right side, adjacent to the first transverse seat in the foward end of the last passenger car, and passed out through the sash above the second seat on the left hand side. Pike's Opera House, at Cincinnation The people of Cincinnati are having a good time at their magnificent Opera House, built by Samuel N. Pike, Esq. Strakosch has been entertaining them for three weeks, with his grand troupe, and expects to continue in their good favor for a fortnight longer. Those who have not seen the house nor heard the music nor counted the cost, can have but an imperfect idea of either. The Opera House is without doubt, the most ample and complete in this country, and we are inclived to think it surpasses anything of the kind in Europe. Such a work was never undertaken and completed in the New World by a single individual, and perhaps not in the Old World, for such things are usually done by companies and corporations that have more money thus to invest than individuals.

The following are the dimensions of the princip pal Opera Houses in Europe, the figures showing the depth of the auditorium from the curtain to the opposite wall:

The auditorium of Pike's is 98 feet in length by 98 in breadth, with a height of 82 feet from the floor of the parquette to the crown of the central dome. The second tier is richly ornamented with Cupids in bas relief, supporting a centre, or sheld, from which depends a gilded chandelier of curious device. The third ther is ornamented with a bold and careless grouping of musical instruments, in bas relief, divided by projecting struments, in bas relief, divided by projecting pillars, from which depend chandeliers similar to those of the second tier, the whole richly gilded. The columns supporting the boxes are richly rnamented with spiral festoons, and highly elaborate capitals and trusses, glittering in gold.— The covering of the seats is crimson plush for the first and second tiers, and enameled leather for the third. The interior lobbies, up-stairs and down, together with the passages into the parquete and boxes, are covered with rich tapestry carpets, in harmony with the ceilings and walls.

This magnificent department is capable of seating 8,000 persons, and affords ample room for one third of this number to stand, making its capacity sufficient for 4,000 persons. Here are $10,700 per month paid for the prin cipal singers. To this must be added the less faacus of voice, who fill up, and the chorus, the orchestra, etc., etc., which cannot cost far short of another $10,000 per month, especially if traveling expenses be added. It, therefore, appears that the opera is very decidedly an expensive lux-ury, not to be afforded by everybody. The Cinnatians, of course, will enjoy the thing, but whether Pike will make money by his investment in the house, or Strakosch get rich by supplying such costly music is another matter. We are very much inclined to think that all concerned will come to the conclusion that it don't pay. Yet the Opera House is an ornament to Cincinnati, and an honor to Mr. Pike. It would ornament any city, and be an honor to any builder. There is nothing like it in this country, and nothing superior to it in Europe. OLDHAM COUNTY .- We are requested to say that Rich T. Jacob, Esq., has yielded to the call made moon him so far as to consent to be a candidate for the Legislature in Oldham county, subject to the decision of the Democratic County Conven tion. There is reason in these opinions. Mr. Guthrie

The gallant Col. referred to, was raised among the honest men of old Bourbon, where fraud and the public generally, are unanimous that the BEST GOLD PERS are now made in Louisville. For fineness and clearness of stroke, permanence of elasticity, the honest men of old Bourbon, where fraud and trickery at the polls is held in as much odium and disesteem as to swindle at the card table. No doubt the Col. did take the defeat of his party very hard, particularly when he reflected upon the base and dishonorable means resorted to, to bring about that result. "Up guards and at'em" was slightly altered by the "commander in chief" to up ruffians and at 'em—charge upon the defenceless and unarmed Dutch and Irish. Worthy heroes, and worthy to be used by such a "commander-in-chief!" and above all for that durability that should characterise a Gold Pen, they are now unrivalled. Being made exclusively for the retail trade, every pen is passed under the severest tests previous to being offered for sale.

Strangers and citizens are invited to visit and examine the stock of over one thousand Gold Pens and every variety of Case and Holder known to the trade, at the Louisville Gold Pen Manufac-Blanton Duncan has seen fit to appropriate the tory of HOSKINS & BARNES, ove paragraph exclusively to himself, and to 88 Third street, bet Market and Jefferson. nounce the author through the columns of the

A recent letter from China details the fact that now, as in the earlier days of our country's history, New England is the great slave carrier, and Massachusetts, the hot bed of Abolitionism, foremost in the work. The letter to which we refer is from an officer on board the U. S. steamship Mississippi, which, at the date of the letter, January 18th, was lying at Whampoa. The writer says:

I am sorry to record the fact that another Massachusetts ship, the Live Yankee of Roston Capt omplete stock may require. One thing can be relied upon, that at Martin & Penton's, goods will be found as represented, and at as low figures as the same quality can be found elsewhere. 9

I am told that they received a new stock of Men's, B:ys' and Youth's Clothing and Furnishing Goods last week, and I suppose the crowd is a little greater than usual; in fact Brother John told me that several accidents occurred there last week in consequence of the dense rush of customers. It must be admitted that the greaterowd you see going and or ming from there every day must be taken as evidence that Blanchard & Son have the best stock of goods in the city, and sell much cheaper than anybody else. I must say that before I commenced dealing there, I had hard work to get along, but since I commenced buying my supplies at Blanchard & Son's, I am getting rich." Judge—After the jurors were dismissed yesterday one of the eleven came up to the bench and asked if he could say a word to me. I told him not about the case. However he went on to say, "I answered the question put to me, but since I have been sworn and been in the jury box I have been reflecting on this thing. I am not quite satisfied with myself." On which I said, "I cannot be lieve you," turning round, and he went off. I think it right to mention this publicly, in case counsel may think proper to move about it. THE VESPER GAS AIR LIGHT.

The Cheapest, most Brilliant, and mest Conven Artificial Light in the World. The Cheapest, most Brilliant, and mest Convenient Artificial Light in the World.

THE Vesper Gas Light has won for itself a reputation for elegance, economy, safety and simplicity, far beyond any other artificial light. The Vesper Gas flame and fixtures precisely resemble in form those of coal gas; but in brilliancy and purity of light, it possesses a decided advantage over even Louisville coal gas. It requires no chimney; there is no need of daily trimming of wick; and the constraction of the fixtures is so simple that it is not linitle to get out of order, and a child can manage it readily. The gas burnt in the Vesper fixtures is generated from pure coal oil, without any admixture of alcohol or other foreign ingredient. It is entirely free from door while burning, aa, by a simple contrivance, the vapor of the oil is mixed with the atmosphere, producing perfect combustion and a most intense light. The light has been pronounced, by those who have had it in constant use for months, as most pleasant to the eye while reading or sewing, there being no flickering or unsteadiness in the flame. The Vesper Gas light is portable, and can be used in town or country—in fact, wherever artificial light is required. The fixtures themselves are adapted in styles to suit all rastes, from the plain slogle light burner to the most costly chandeller. Each chandeller is perfect in itself; there is no outlay to be made for service pipes. The gas is generated in the burner, and all fixtures, from the cheap single light burner to the expensive chandeller, are miniature gas works in themselves. They are sold at prices which do not exceed the cost of ordinary gas fixtures of similar styles and ornamentation. A price list will be sent to any address on application.

PILOT OF THE DAVID GIESON SUSPENDED.—The decision of the Local Inspectors, in the case of Mr. William Irwin, the pilot who was at the wheel of the David Gibson, at the time of the collision with the Holmes, is published in full in the Cincinnati Gazette. The license of Mr.
Irwin has been revoked, and he is to be prosecuted under the laws of the United States, for crum ioal negligence. The offense, if found guilty, is manslaughter. The testimony of officers of the Nat Holmes proved that the boat had stopped a manslaughter. The testimony of officers of the Nat Holmes proved that the boat had stopped a mile above the other boat, and was backing at the time of the collision. This was corroborated by the carpenter of the Gibson, which is as follows:

William Scott, who was on the forward part of the harricane deck of the tribson, and forward of the pilot house, is clear and positive, that when he first saw the Holmes coming down, she was a mile off, and when she stopped her engines, and commenced floating, he saw her plainly he also states that she gave the first signal, and a, rees in every particular with the capital and pilot of the Holmes, in their testimony; he also states that the night was not a bad one to run, but that it was clear enough for him to see the shores; that there was not much win! blowing shead of the Gibson, and that he perceived no smoke blowing shead of the boat to blind the pilot, but that he could see the Holmes all the time, and the light at Lawrenceburgh, three miles up. ti ue, and the light at Lawrenceburgh, three miles up. The Gibson was so far out from the shore that there was om for four or five boats to pass between them and the

HAVING lately made some improvements in the man-ufacture of our white lead, we now offer to the trade our several brands of that article, which we war rant to be equal in quality to any made either East or Wast.

Our attention has been called to an article of wanting that quality of Lead as not made here. But those wanting that quality of Lead we can supply with an article equal in every respect to the above brand of Lead at a price 20 per cent below that of the so-called manufacturers of that article.
